

On character varieties, sets of discrete characters, and non-zero degree maps

Steven Boyer

L'Université du Québec à Montréal, Canada

Abstract. In this talk, which reports on work in progress with Michel Boileau, we discuss when a sequence of non-zero degree maps between closed, connected 3-manifolds has a subsequence which converges to a non-zero degree map, and look into what happens when it does not.