The volume and Jones polynomial of hyperbolic knots

David Futer
Michigan State University, USA

Abstract. Experimental evidence suggests that hyperbolic knots and links with small volume also have Jones polynomials with small coefficients. In fact, the volume appears to be coarsely determined by the coefficients near the head and tail of the polynomial. I will survey several recent results that prove this is indeed the case for some large families of knots and links.