An application of normal surface theory to the Thurston norm

Stephan Tillmann
The University of Melbourne, Australia

Abstract. I will describe an application of normal surface theory to the study of the Thurston norm. This is joint work with Daryl Cooper.